

POPE JOHN PAUL I ASSEMBLY 1829
JANUARY 2006 NEWSLETTER
FAITHFUL FRIAR MSGR. DON EICHENSEER

Dear Sir Knights and Ladies,

Happy New Year! I hope your new year has started out on the best note possible. We were able to start our Assembly year with a quick 30 minute January 4th meeting. The Domino's Pizza was great afterward. Those involved with our EXEMPLIFICATION will meet Thursday, January 19, 2005 at the O'Fallon KofC Hall. Please be there at 6:45.

Trustee Walt Leninsky, PFN, has determined our Assembly does not have an approved set of by-laws. The Assembly attempted to amend them in 1984 but it was returned by Supreme not approved. Our proposed by-laws will comply with the model provided by Supreme. We will vote on these at our March meeting, if you would like to have input please attend the February 1 meeting.

Thank you Ted Stites and John Bechtoldt for being the chairmen of the Annual Wheelbarrow of Booze. We were able to raise a record amount of donations this year! Our winner was Steve Goodwin of O'Fallon, who purchased a ticket from PFN Joe Burroughs at an Eighth Grade Trivia Night held at the O'Fallon KofC Club.

Fraternally, FN David Dempsey

SIR KNIGHT OF THE YEAR

Sir Knight Michael J. Stock was the recipient of the 2005 Sir Knight of the Year Award! Mike achieved the Fourth Degree on August 29, 1998 and has been active since his first meeting. Thank you Mike for your dedication to our Assembly activities such as the Wheelbarrow and Mystery Night fundraisers.

We would like to include Patriotic information along with our membership records. If you or your spouse have served, or currently serve, in the military please complete the form below and return to the assembly.
