

POPE JOHN PAUL I ASSEMBLY 1829
OCTOBER 2005 NEWSLETTER
FAITHFUL FRIAR MSGR. DON EICHENSEER

Dear Sir Knights and Ladies,

We will sponsor a hospitality room for the Collinsville Exemplification. Please bring food and beer donations Friday night and Saturday afternoon to the Holiday Inn on Eastport Plaza in Collinsville. I do not have a room number, but it will be on the first floor. The room is booked from 7 PM Friday night to 4:30 PM on Saturday. Please stop by any time Friday night and/or again on Saturday between 1:30 and 4 PM.

Congratulations to PFN Walt Leninsky who was recently named as Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois! Please give him your support by participating in the Color Corps. To celebrate we will have a meal after our November meeting.

Thank you to Stan Jones and Eugene Bringaze for traveling to the Marion Exemplification with me to promote our upcoming exemplification and provide hors d'oeuvres this past month. It was a great success!

Thanks to Mike Stock, Bill & Rose Stock, Stan Jones, and Robin Shumate for making the Murder Mystery a wonderful evening. We had our largest crowd ever come out to watch who Killed the Wizard. Best Actor was won by Sir Knight Larry Wessels and Best Actress by Lady Gayle Keniley.

Trustee Walt Leninsky, PFN, has reviewed the Bi-Laws and made recommendations for changes. We will vote on these changes at our next meeting, if you would like to have input please attend. Thank you to Charlene McCracken for locating Terry's original of our previous Bi-Laws.

Ted Stites and John Bechtoldt are chairmen for the Annual Wheelbarrow of Booze. Liquor donations will be accepted at the November meeting, and we will wrap the wheelbarrow after. Included with this newsletter are the raffle tickets - $1 each or six for $5!

Fraternally, FN David Dempsey
